FEES FOR ANY INFORMATION REQUESTED UNDER THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT - GENERAL RIGHT OF ACCESS

Balsall Parish Council reserves the right to charge fees for the provision of any information under the Freedom of Information Act that it has to provide under the general right of access. (Fees are not charged for requests for information for documents under the Publication Scheme.) The costs are limited to those that Balsall Parish Council reasonably expects to incur in:

- Determining whether it holds the information requested,
- Locating the information or documents, and
- Retrieving such information or documents, and
- Extracting the information from the document containing it (including editing or redacting information)

Balsall Parish Council may take into account the costs attributable to the time that persons are expected to spend on these activities on behalf of the authority – both the authority's own staff and any one else (for example external contractors) engaged by it for these purposes. The hourly rate for staff-time costs is set at £25 per person per hour.

Fees charged will in accordance with guidelines issued by the Department of Constitutional Affairs "Guidance on the application of the Freedom of Information and Data Protection (Appropriate Limit and Fees) Regulations 2004.

The decision to waive any fees will be the sole responsibility of the Proper Officer of the Council and the final decision will rest with that officer.
